

GEOL 3231 — EARTH SYSTEM & CLIMATE

Poster Rubric

| Criteria for assessment | Score | Marks |
|---|-------|-----------|
| Content | | 20 |
| Abstract summarising the poster | 2 | |
| The introduction containing appropriate background to the research topic. | 10 | |
| Main body presents up-to-date literature on the research topic, discuss and present the different datasets and how they relate and support one another etc. | 5 | |
| Conclusion summarises the findings of the literature review and any criticisms you may have from your review | 3 | |
| Relevance to ESC – sentence or two summarising the relevance of this research topic to the content of this module | 2 | |
| Structure & formatting | | 15 |
| The poster has a clear beginning and end. | 2 | |
| The text areas have clearly defined pieces of information and are readable from a distance. | 5 | |
| The images enhance the text and are cited correctly in caption and in text body | 5 | |
| Relevant sections are presented (title, author, abstract, introduction, main body, conclusion, citations, relevance). | 3 | |
| Language & figures | | 10 |
| Language is clear, concise and easy to understand. | 2 | |
| Language is appropriate for the intended audience. | 2 | |
| No spelling or grammatical errors. | 2 | |
| Figures are clear and readable from a distance (not pixelated). | 4 | |
| Information & impression | | 10 |
| There is enough information to inform the audience of the topic and not too much to require lengthy reading. | 2 | |
| All the information is relevant to the topic? | 4 | |
| The poster is visually attractive and well presented. | 2 | |
| Layout is clear and logical. | 2 | |
| Total | | 50 |